

PHISHING WARNING

Be on the lookout for emails claiming to be from respectable businesses, such as Bayou Federal Credit Union or other financial institutions, asking for confidential information. Bayou Federal assures you that under no circumstance would we email you and ask you to send us your confidential account information, unless you have initiated the transaction, such as a loan application. The only instance where your member number and online password are required is when gaining entry to our secure Online Banking site to conduct your online transactions. If you receive a suspicious email that appears to be from Bayou Federal asking for your account number and password, please contact the credit union.
